A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

A We did not expect, when we commenced business at our present location. In September, 1873, that a financial crisis such as we have passed through was possible, nor did we look for such an unusually mild winser. We naturally expected cold weather, and made preparations for a live business; and being a new house we were very anxious to establish a strictly first class reputation. We imported the finest Skins to be had, and we consider the condition of the stringent momentary after a satured; but, owing to the stringent momentary after a care in curing and dressing the condition of the country and the backward weather combined, our sales have not seen up to use the Holday trade is over.

We have some $62,000 worth on hand, which we are desirous of turning into cash as soon as possible in order to be prepared for next season's business. We will, therefore, offer our elegant stock, consisting of Seai Skin Sacques, Muffs and Boas, Hudson Bay and Russian Sables, Beaver, Otter, Mink, Silver Fox, Alaska Sable and all the leading tashionable Furs, all rresh and newly made, at decided bargains.

We are determined not to carry any Furs over during the summer months, and have marked our goods down to prices which will insure sales. Now is the fime to huy, as an opportunity for purchasing reliable Furs at such low prices as we are now offering may hever occur again.
